

3GPP2 Travel Information

Access to Wuzhou Guest House from Hongkong International Airport

Please follow the tips below step by step, you will find it is easy and nice for you to get to Shenzhen Wuzhou guesthouse, the 3GPP2 TSG-S, TSG-A, TSG-N and TSG-P meeting venue and accommodation.

There are the cross-boundary shuttle bus services from Hongkong International Airport to Shenzhen Wuzhou Guest House (through the Shenzhen Huang Gang Check Point). ZTE would recommend the popular E&E Bus service. It has 15 services daily from 10:30 to 20:30.

When you arrive at Hongkong International Airport and leave the immigration and the Customs, please look for the E&E Reception Counter, near Arrival Hall "A" Exit, as indicated in the following chart. You can enlarge and print it.

Important note: If arrive later than 20:30, you may not have time enough to catch the shuttle bus, meanwhile, the check point in both Hongkong and Shenzhen will be closed at 23:00. It is proposed that you should stay at the Regal Hotel that is only 300 meters away from the exit of the Arrival Hall; the tariff is around USD150 per night.

When buying bus ticket, your destination is Shenzhen WuZhou Guest House. The total trip will charge you RMB180 yuan (about US$22).

It takes about 40 minutes from Hongkong Airport to Shenzhen Huang Gang Check, as you know, it depends on traffic condition. You will have to complete the procedures of the Customs and immigration when you arrive at Hongkong checkpoint. Do not forget to bring your belongings, travel documents and get back the same bus. About 3 minutes, you will arrive at Shenzhen Huang Gang checkpoint. Of course, you should complete the same formality. IF THERE IS PLENTY OF TIME, you can exchange the Chinese Yuan at the Bank of China in the checkpoint hall as soon as you go through the China Customs, remind you to reserve the receipt of exchange.

Important note: Alien is just allowed to bring RMB 5000 from overseas into Shenzhen.

The checkpoint is 3 kilometers away from Wuzhou Guest House. Walking out of checkpoint, you should find the E&E Bus station, show your ticket and get on the same bus or transfer to a minibus. Since the bus will travel to several hotels, you should tell the busman at which you will get off and she/he will inform you upon arrival.

Any problem in Shenzhen, do not hesitate to contact Mr. Leu at mobile phone 13923866349 or (+86 755) 6790322.
